“There’s nothing better than checking out a new book. Looking at the enticing cover and turning it over and reading the tantalizing back cover. Opening the book and reading the first lines sets you and your imagination to a new place or the new information begins to transform you. The pages keep turning until you get to the last page, what a let down its finished! The good news is you can go back to the NEW BOOK SHELVES and get another book to transform you all over again! Hope to see you there!!
