Hi everyone.

My name is Vicki Glover and I'm one of the circulation crew, that you will be greeted by as you enter the library. I started working at the Knox branch about 6 months ago.

I have lived in Knox most of my life. I have worked a variety of jobs from factory, CNA, customer service and hair dresser. I'm happy to say I'm finally in the career I've wanted since high school.

I've been coming to the Knox branch of Starke County since it was originally in the location it's at right now, but located in a little white building. I continued coming after it moved up town across from the court house and then back to the current location.

My family are lovers of books. Both my daughters were brought to the library before they were a week old and have grown up in the library. My husband would spend every waking moment here if he could.

I have many literary likes. I love anything written about Amish. I read non-fiction to learn about any interest I have. Recently it's been diabetic books and books about The Great Depression. Like Little Heathens hard times and high spirits on an Iowa Farm during the Depression.

So if you have interest, come to the library to find some great books. I'll see you when you check them out.
